REGIONALOGUE

MISS JOHNSON

We Dedicate

*H*ER patience and wit have aided us in many phases of our school life. Our gay dance decorations, colorful posters, and pictures about the school reveal her ingenuity and her interest in us.

She is really human; her sense of humor and unlimited understanding will always be remembered by her students.

Her sound judgment, true generosity, sense of fair play, kindness and enthusiasm—these are the characteristics that endear her to us.

Not many realize the important part she has played in this yearbook and those of former years. Her clever ideas and thoughtful suggestions have helped to make the REGIONALOGUE the book it is.

With sincere respect, true admiration, and real affection, we dedicate this book to one of our most vital and enjoyable personalities, KAY JOHNSON.

A D M I N

AMELIA L. TUTTLE
Secretary to Mr. Halsey

He has been our guide over the difficult trails of four years in high school and will ever be before us in the days of the future, leading us on to higher goals and ideals. We have felt the need of one like him in these days of peril. We ourselves shall be better able to serve our country because he has helped us to prepare for responsible American citizenship upon which our land will depend in the time to come. He has given us a clear sense of direction. We thank you, Mr. Halsey.

HOT SPOTS IN A

September

- 9 Lost, strayed, or stolen, one Freshmen class!!
- 10 Perhaps the upper classmen are the lost souls this year, what with so many new teachers.
- 14 Freshmen class still unfound.
- 20 We thought some teachers had forgotten to wash their upper lips, but then found out it was supposed to be.
- 26 Bound Brook starts their football season off with a bang — 37-0.

October

- 7 Dr. Morris reports that 99% of the girls have uniformitis.
- 10 Everyone went to the football game this day. To see the game? No, to see the new drum majorette. P. S. We lost the game.
- 22 Thanks, Bob. Accidentally he found the Freshmen — by use of a microscope.
- 30 Local merchants couldn't understand the poor sale of Hallowe'en masks, but then, they haven't seen us.

November

- 13 "Jumpin' Jupiter." We've done it again. One way to get people to pay their dues is to have a 3-act play like this. Oh, yeah!!

- 20 The odds were 20 to 1 that the burglar was Miss McCarthy.
- 25 So sorry, but "there weren't no burglar."
- 26 Oh, why did we eat so much? We can't lift our feet, let alone dance.

December

- 1 The Honor Society today began the sale of red flannels.
- 5 But, Mr. Manze, they can't draft our boys. What are we going to do on Saturday nights?
- 9 Football banquet — Morton is nabbed walking out with a pitcher under his coat.
- 18 Christmas Dance.
- 19 The day after the senior dance. More fun cleaning up! Oh, yeah! For details see one of the few who showed up.
- 20 We were so sorry our Christmas vacation was extended, really we were.
- 21-24 All students went Christmas shopping, with what? Shh, it's a military secret.

January

- 4 The Regionalites promptly broke their New Year's Resolutions.

CHILLY YEAR

- 14 Three dropperfuls of fuel oil were delivered to the school.
- 27 The Juniors and Seniors have run out of words after writing 400,000 of them. Amazing how quiet it can be.
- 29 Red Flannels' sales going up.

February

- 7 John Metz is still unpacking apples.
- 7 Regional converts to coal — students have a one-week vacation forced upon them.
- 24 Howard Cleaves told us of the attractions of night life, but we're from Missouri.
- 26 V Corps activities began — Arthur and Beaver spend Activity Period in homeroom.
- 29 Regional got in full swing with the tin-can collection.

March

- 1 Karl Kroehling is also unpacking apples.
- 3 It didn't make sense, but it sure was "purdy."
- 5 V Corps Assembly — Oh, Johnson, those red socks!
- 13 Regional ruins Roselle Park, 50-25. Nice going, "Zeke".

Being a democratic people, we Americans must make democracy work by putting it into practice in our schools.

With each school year our own Student Council grows in importance. In this organization is invested the rights of every student in Regional High School. It is this body that governs, legislates, and advises.

To uphold the ideals set forth by the Council, a Hall Patrol has been established. The chief function of this squad is to enforce rules and regulations which have been provided to keep our school well under control.

Certain high standards of scholarship and service must be realized and acted upon in every high school. For this reason a National Honor Society was brought into the school circle.

With these three organizations we at Regional practice Democracy.

The F. F. A. boys under the guidance and leadership of Mr. Peigelbeck are typifying the true American spirit. They have fixed toys for the poor, collected food for Christmas baskets, raised chickens, and placed boys on farms to help in the war effort. They have allowed no obstacle to impede their progress.

The Junior Red Cross members have been working just as hard at more feminine pursuits. They have devoted time and energy to knitting useful articles, aiding service organizations, and collecting for the Red Cross fund drive.

These two organizations are helping America to attain Victory — peace and freedom.

Regional just wouldn't be Regional without these organizations. They provide the school with that "extra something." Our Sketching Club has been noted for their colorful dance decorations and their quick response to demands for teaching material and advertising for both school and community. The members of this group have combined talents, willingness, and perseverance for service.

Our vocal groups have always been able to reach their high C's. Although they did not have an operetta this year, they showed their skills and talents in their Spring Serenade. These groups have lived up to Regional's standards of achievement. Their audience was well pleased.

VICTORY CORPS

The establishment of the Victory Corps provided an opportunity for Regional students to contribute in a unified way to the present-day crisis. As in most schools, it succeeded in making us all aware of the possibilities for aiding the government in the war.

The organization itself is divided into two large headings: general membership and specific division membership—the latter open in the majority of cases to juniors and seniors.

In order to qualify for general membership the student must follow a course chosen to fit him for future life, participate in the school's physical program, and contribute frequently to the war effort.

The specific divisions are land, air, sea, community, and production service, which prepare boys and girls for special jobs as indicated by the titles of the divisions. These divisions participated in the salvage drives.

Community Service proved so popular that it had to be split into three groups, one of which is devoted to commercial services.

Homeroom groups familiarized themselves with army insignia, branches of the service, home-front war problems of manpower shortage, Victory gardening, etc.

Regional instituted a different salvage campaign every two weeks since the inauguration of the V-Corps in February, 1943. The response of the student body in collecting a ton and a half of tin cans showed patriotic spirit and a desire to be a part of the movement.

The F.F.A. Production Service boys contributed 290 wool squares to the Red Cross for the making of blankets.

Three pre-induction classes (Radio Code Class, Automobile Mechanics Class, and Aeronautics Class) and the model-airplane builders' group were also a vital part of the program.

When these activities result so promptly after the introduction of the Victory Corps idea, we certainly realize that the future holds great promise of vital activity on the part of Regional boys and girls in the war effort.

FOOTBALL

When a team has a "Bulldog" spirit and fights to the end no matter what the score or odds, experienced rooters know that this team must really deserve credit. Regional this year did not have a particularly successful season, as far as scores go, but the team was surely in there looking for a scrap, charging low and hitting hard. Never did the opponents, eager to repay us for the previous defeats handed down by other Regional teams, never did they find the games "push overs."

Our New coach, "Les" Goodwin, brought out the best that the boys had. Backs—Street, Miragler, Smart, DeFreitas; ends—Cull, Callahan, Nielson; tackles—Irving, Serkes, Johnson; guards—Lenehan, Mulligan, Voelker and Center Morton are those who formed the foundation of the team. Because of the trained reserves ready to fill their places, Regional will break that "losing jinx" next year. We will again give tough opposition to all comers!

CROSS COUNTRY

Though greatly overshadowed by football "Doc" Cookman's runners completed another successful cross-country season. Led by Captain John Forgino, the team kept the Orange and Blue in the race over asphalt, cinders, mud or grass.

Though coming close to victory many times, the harriers did not have particularly good luck. Nevertheless these boys were out for all the fun they could get. Next year cross-country should become one of Regional's highlights in its sports calendar.

WRESTLING

Wrestling, not only with all comers, but also with war restrictions, the Regional grapplers finished the season in high spirits. Though greatly hampered by graduation Coach Battaglia's boys again came out fourth in the state. Led by "Chuck" Charles Johnson, who became our school's first state wrestling champion, the two seniors Gerald Brodsky and Robert Hoagland "copped" second places.

During the regular season the Bulldogs were beaten twice by the second place Roselle Park team. Next year Regional will again put forth a strong team, but nevertheless the absence of the senior lettermen will be felt.

BASKETBALL

This year Coach Goodwin and the cagers wrote a memorable page into the record book. Although for the first time we had only a 50-50 season record, we became for the first time (despite previous county championships) Union County's contender for the New Jersey basketball title. However, Weehawken succeeded in eliminating our quintet in a hard fought game. Only two Big Five teams, Linden and Rahway, outscored us on all meetings.

Through the season the two senior co-captains, John "Zeke" Zabelski and George Morton sparkplugged the attack. George collected 223 points and John 210. Next year we hopefully look forward to the mass of Junior lettermen left to hold up that Bulldog basketball tradition.

TRACK

These men swept through their season in unexcelled style. Though losing to Union in the county loop, we outscored the opponents in both the State and Newark invitational meets. At the latter the discovery of an official miscalculation forced us to surrender the presented trophy. In the "State" an unfortunate mishap snatched victory from our grasp.

Six records were shattered, and one tied. George Smart had another successful season; he copped two second places in the State meet and also tied his previous 100 yard time while breaking the 220 record. Roddy Lister and Freddy Danneman both topped the previous school pole vault record. By vaulting 12' 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ " Fred became state champion. "Chinky" with Albert Nielson boosted the high jump mark to 5' 9". On the other hand, Roddy cut the time of the high hurdles. An excellent half miler as well, Charley Johnson hurled the javelin 157' 8". Among other records smashed was that of the discus by Bobby Keller.

Because of its fine record this team ranks with Regional's other outstanding athletic achievements. Coach Hughes certainly deserves credit for the development of each boy's talents..

CHEERLEADERS

"Come on, Regional — let's go!" is what the cheerleaders yell at all the football and basketball games. Their famous pep talk, "Give it all you've got!", is what makes us yell and sing so loudly. They have worked hard to raise school spirit and inspire the team. Defeat doesn't bother our cheerleaders. They're always on the spot to chase the blues away. They leave a fine pattern for our future cheerleaders to follow.

GIRLS'

With emphasis being placed more than ever on physical fitness and health, girls find sports and exercises an especially enjoyable means of developing their endurance, posture, and general welfare. Especially valuable are basketball, hockey, soccer, swimming, volley ball, cycling, hiking, and ping pong. Good health, awards, and acclaim reward every girl.

METZ

*With Johnnie as President we made our start.
He's been our star speaker and played a part
In drama, in Council, and F. F. A.
When the going was rough, he led the way.*

FONTENELLI

*Our first Vice-President was June.
We were lucky to discover her so soon.
Besides knowing all that's in the books,
She's got everything, including looks.*

BELLIVEAU

*Our second president was Belliveau,
A man of art and judgment too.
He's handsome, friendly, quiet, tall.
When there's work to do, he's the man to call.*

NASH

*As a third year class, we were not rash
But wisely chose a man, Jim Nash.
Luckily his ideas carried weight
If we found ourselves in an awful state.*

MORTON

*Morton has shown political force.
(We've had strong leaders each year, of course.)
He's been a basketball star besides
And scared our opponents out of their hides.*

LANNING

*Jack's a fellow who has a lot
Of what it takes to make it hot
For Tojo and his evil schemes.
Keep 'em running, brave Marines!*

A FRIENDLY CLASS

WALSH

*When we started Jack was small.
He made us think that we were tall.
We liked his wit and friendly smile.
Then he grew up and got in style.*

WIEGAND

*High wing - low wing - monoplane -
Bomber - fighter - glider train -
Wiegand's brain has the greatest store
Of facts and figures and flyer's lore.*

PACKER

*Betty Packer, the lucky girl,
Sets the boys and girls awbirl.
She has that certain subtle touch
That makes her president and such.*

RUBIN

*Al has a good share of the classes' brain.
He has published the News without stress or strain;
He has done his work without a flurry.
He'll succeed. We have no worry.*

NUCIFORA

*Whenever we were looking for a
Girl with everything, Nucifora
Was our choice. And everyone knows
She'll be first choice wherever she goes.*

SULLIVAN

*Remember the operetta, "Pinafore"?
Need a music-lover ask for more?
For looks, personality, and voice
Cornly, of course, was our first choice.*

ZABELSKI

*Zeke's a man we've fallen for.
And boy! can he run up a score
On the court. For friendliness
He's just tops, and that's no guess!*
